MAZEL TOV TO KINLOSS CHATANIM

JEREMY MINDELL CHATAN TORAH

Jeremy joined Finchley Synagogue 25 years ago. Previously, he had been and remains a member of Ealing Synagogue where he was on the board of management and a local councillor.

He is married to Belinda and has three children: James, Alex, Richard and a treasured daughter-in-law, Judith. He also has three grandchildren: Netanel, Eliezer and Amitai.

Jeremy is also delighted that he can share this simcha not only with the community but also his parents Ruth and Bertram Mindell, and his parents-in-law Debbie and Norman Primost.

Jeremy served as Financial Representative for 7 years at Kinloss. His commitment was extended by Covid for one year beyond the normal constitutional limit.

Apart from his interest in shul, where he likes traditional tunes, he has a number of hobbies including history. He has given several lectures at Kinloss on Jewish and secular history. His specialist subject is the American Civil War. He also loves skiing in Switzerland and is generally a fan of cold weather rather than hot.

Jeremy also loves cricket and is a member of MCC. He believes that most of life's dilemmas can be explained through 'the noble game'.

Finally, he has an abiding interest in gardening and most of his shilas involve some aspect of this hobby.

MARTIN SHIERS CHATAN BEREISHIT

I have been a member a regular attendee at Kinloss for more than 20 years. My family and I have enjoyed the warm and friendly atmosphere in the shul and being part of the Kinloss community, watching it grow and change over the years.

I have been involved in security shortly after joining and have always been passionate about the need to give back and protect our community.

I feel humbled to have been asked to be Chatan Bereishit this year. I consider this a shared honour with all my colleagues who have stood on the door with me over the years.
