The name “maketh the man”

‘And Moshe came and spoke all the words of this Song in the ears of the people, he and Hoshea bin Nun’ (Devarim 32:44)

There is a name in the above verse which looks out of place. Hoshea refers to Yehoshua (Joshua) but apparently is his previous, original name! Hoshea was identified as Yehoshua many years earlier, such as during the battle against Amalek (Shemot chapter 17) and even ‘renamed’ Yehoshua before he joined the spies on their scouting mission to the Land of Israel (Bemidbar chapter 13). Why does the Torah revert to his previous name here?

Rashi (d. 1105) explains this is to show Yehoshua’s humility in front of his teacher, Moshe, who was present at this time of transition just prior to his passing, handing the baton to Yehoshua. Yehoshua reverted to his previous name to show he was still Moshe’s student. Rabbi Avraham Ibn Ezra (d. 1167) adds that the people still knew Yehoshua as Hoshea; his changed name was only known to the leadership. In using the name Hoshea, the Torah teaches us about his popularity as well as his humility.

The Kli Yakar (Rabbi Shlomo Ephraim Luntschitz, d. 1619) writes that the extra letter ‘yud’ which changed the name Hoshea to Yehoshua was done to invoke the name Name of G-d (by putting the ‘yud’ before the ‘hey’) as a prayer to protect Yehoshua from the malicious plans of his fellow spies, other than Kalev. By the end of Moshe’s life, all of the spies and their generation, other than Kalev, had passed on so there was no need for Yehoshua to keep his changed name at this point. The malicious plans had gone, so he could revert back to his original name.

Presumably, Hoshea’s name was subsequently changed back to Yehoshua, the title we use for the next book in the Bible and named after him, to indicate the divine assistance which he would require as he led the conquest of the Land.

Shabbat Shalom and Chag Sameach for Succot!

Rabbi Lawrence In Conversation with...

• Wednesday 30th October - 8pm

Rt Hon Lord John Alderdice

John Alderdice is a Psychiatrist by profession, but as Leader of the Alliance Party of Northern Ireland, he played a significant role in the Talks on Northern Ireland including the negotiation of the 1998 Good Friday Agreement. He was the first Speaker of the new Northern Ireland Assembly and has held many international positions including as President of Liberal International. Since 1996 he has sat as a Liberal Democrat life member of the House of Lords, and is currently Director of the Centre for the Resolution of Intractable Conflict and Chairman of the Centre for Democracy and Peace Building in Belfast. Lord Alderdice's areas of special interest are the individual and group psychology of terrorism and violent political conflict and the psychology of religious fundamentalism.

• Wednesday 6th November - 8pm

Marie van der Zyl

Marie van der Zyl was elected President of the Board of Deputies of British Jews in May 2018. In the past three years she has played a crucial part in the fight against antisemitism in the Labour Party. Her quote, labelling the Chakrabarti report as a "whitewash", was carried widely across national media. Marie was at the forefront of the campaign against the so-called "cab-rank" policy, by which the Inner North London Coroner delayed the release of bodies to Jewish families. Her negotiations resulted in its adoption of the internationally recognised IHRA definition of antisemitism.
