Shabbat Forum immediately after the Service

Over the last year Kinloss members have hosted two young Israeli high school graduates Arielle Lieberman and Achinoam Glick, who have been working hard with schools and youth in the wider Jewish community. They have brought a lot of energy and enthusiasm into their spirited work, promoting Jewish education and Israel.

We are delighted that they will share some thoughts with us in a brief Forum at the end of the service on Shabbat morning.

The message is a fitting transition from Pesach into Yom Hashoah next week.

THIS WEEK'S HAFTORAH BY RABBI ANDREWS

Haftorot of Pesach:

Haftorah for the 7th day of Pesach (II Samuel 22):

King David composes a song in his old age. This parallels the Torah reading in which Moshe teaches the Jewish people the "Song of the Sea".

Haftorah for the 8th day of Pesach (Isaiah 10:32-34, 11, 12:1-6):

Isaiah prophesizes regarding the messianic era. He tells of a time when "the wolf will dwell with the lamb, and the leopard will lie with the kid goat; the calf and the young lion will graze together, and a young lad shall lead them".

If you find yourself at Kinloss over the course of the day, please stop by the office to say hello! I can usually be found there during the regular office hours (except Thursday).

Eruv Tavshilin

On Yom Tov, one is normally allowed to cook what is needed for that festive day—but not the next. When First Seder Night falls on a Wednesday, so that Thursday and Friday are Yom Tov (2020), or as with 2019, when 7th Day Pesach falls on Friday, this would leave us unprepared for Shabbat. We are allowed to carry on preparing for Shabbat if preparations began before Yom Tov set in.

Before Yom Tov we prepare a symbolic starter for Shabbat (normally a Matzah and another cooked food, like an egg, meat or fish), which are set aside to be eaten on Shabbat.

This is the Eruv Tavshilin.

As it is set aside, the following Bracha is made:

Baruch Atah Adonoy Elohaynu Melech Haolam, Asher Kidshanu Bemitzvotay
Vetzivanu Al Mitzvat Eruv

ברוך אתה ה' אלהינו מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצוותיו, וצונו על מצות ערוב

Candle Lighting between Yom Tavs & for Shabbat

Candle lighting must always be before Shabbat.

As we are allowed to transfer flames and cook on Yom Tov, candle lighting for Yom Tov does not need to be before the Chag comes in (though there is no merit in unwarranted delay.)

Candle lighting for second day of Yom Tov ought to be after the first day of Yom Tov has completed, so candle lighting will normally be about an hour later than the previous evening, unless it is a Friday night. Candle lighting on second day Yom Tov ought to be from an existing flame.

Where the community has brought in Shabbat early (as we do during the summer), it is preferable that candles are lit at home at the same time that Shabbat is brought in at shul. While this is not always possible and there may be good reasons for exceptions, it is certainly preferable that Shabbat is "in" at home before worshippers return from shul.

The Shul Office will close for the end of Pesach, at 1:00pm on Thursday 25th April, reopening at 9:00am on Monday 29th April

In case of emergency, please call Rabbi Lawrence on 07501 895 124
Emails sent to office@kinloss.org.uk will be checked regularly on non-Yomtov/Shabbat days
