The name maketh the man

‘And Moshe came and spoke all the words of this Song in the ears of the people, he and Hoshea bin Nun’ (Devarim 32:44)

There is a name in the above verse which looks out of place. Hoshea refers to Yehoshua (Joshua) but apparently is his previous, original name! Hoshea was identified as Yehoshua many years earlier, such as during the battle against Amalek (Shemot chapter 17) and even ‘renamed’ Yehoshua before he joined the spies on their scouting mission to the Land of Israel (Bemidbar chapter 13). Why does the Torah revert to his previous name here?

Rashi (d. 1105) explains this is to show Yehoshua’s humility in front of his teacher, Moshe, who was present at this time of transition just prior to his passing, handing the baton to Yehoshua. Yehoshua reverted to his previous name to show he was still Moshe’s student. Rabbi Avraham Ibn Ezra (d. 1167) adds that the people still knew Yehoshua as Hoshea; his changed name was only known to the leadership. In using the name Hoshea, the Torah teaches us about his popularity as well as his humility.

The Kli Yakar (Rabbi Shlomo Ephraim Luntschitz, d. 1619) writes that the extra letter ‘yud’ which changed the name Hoshea to Yehoshua was done to invoke the name Name of G-d (by putting the ‘yud’ before the ‘hey’) as a prayer to protect Yehoshua from the malicious plans of his fellow spies, other than Kalev. By the end of Moshe’s life, all of the spies and their generation, other than Kalev, had passed on so there was no need for Yehoshua to keep his changed name at this point. The malicious plans had gone, so he could revert back to his original name.

Presumably, Hoshea’s name was subsequently changed back to Yehoshua, the title we use for the next book in the Bible and named after him, to indicate the divine assistance which he would require as he led the conquest of the Land.

THIS WEEK’S HAFTORAH BY RABBI ANDREWS

The Haftorah parallels this week’s Torah reading as they both contain a musical composition by the most significant Jewish leaders of their day. In Parshat (portion) Ha’Azinu, Moshe (Moses) sings his final song as instructed by Hashem. In the Haftorah, II Samuel 22:1-51, a song by David Hamelech (King David).

The Haftarah begins after David has been delivered from his foes, including Sha’ul Hamelech (King Saul). David sings “God is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer,” (22:2). David describes being insnared: “The waves of Death compassed me; the floods of Belial assailed me...The foundations of heaven did tremble; They were shaken because He was wroth” (22:5-8).

David describes God in various guises. Hashem saves him from drowning (22:17), He is an intimidating judge (22:23), and a hunter (22:33).

The common theme that permeates the reading is that while David, as a man, was helpless in the face of the machinations of the world, Hashem, the ultimate power, continuously saved him.

David concludes his composition with ecstatic exaltation: “The Lord liveth, blessed be my rock, and exalted be God...Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the nations, and will sing praises unto thine name.”

David’s song offers an example of an important Jewish leader relating his life and framing God’s intervention. It contrasts with Moshe’s warning in his song found in Parshat Ha’azinu that there will come a time when the Jews will refuse to adopt such a devout outlook.

If you find yourself at Kinloss over the course of the day, please stop by the office to say hello! I can usually be found there during the regular office hours (except Thursday).

The Rabbi Writes

On Shabbat 20th October, we are delighted to be celebrating the centenary of the birth of President Chaim Herzog (born 17th September 1918) in Belfast.

The Service will be led by Chazan Shai Abrahamson, Chief Cantor of the IDF, in conjunction with the Neimah Singers.

President Herzog's father, R' Yitzchak Halevi Herzog was first Chief Rabbi of Ireland 1921-1936 and from 1936-1959 was Ashkenazi Chief Rabbi of the Mandate and then Israel.

Chaim Herzog studied in London, Cambridge and Sandhurst. He joined the Hagana in 1935 and served as a British Officer in the Second World War participating in the Normandy Landings and the Liberation of Bergen-Belsen. He returned to Palestine after the war, was in the battles for Latrun, securing the Jerusalem Road in the War of Independence. He retired from the IDF in 1962 with the rank of Major General.

He was Israel's permanent representative to the UN 1975-78 – articulating our defence to the Zionism is Racism resolution 3379 – and tearing it up before the assembly.

He became a Chaver Knesset in 1981 and then served as Israel's Sixth President over two terms from 1983-93. He died in April 1997.

His son, Isaac "Bougie" Herzog will be joining us for the Service. Isaac Herzog is currently Chair of the Jewish Agency, a former Chair of the Labour Party who has held several ministerial postings.

Kinloss will also be marking the Centenary of the Armistice with an exciting lecture series 24th Oct through 5th December and a Civic Service on Sunday 11th November, the Armistice Anniversary itself.

The Service (7pm – 8.15pm) will be in conjunction with AJEX and with His Worshipful the Mayor Reuben Thompstone and Mike Freer MP.

Sacks Morasha students are preparing some Psalms.

We would like to feature other Kinloss youth in singing and a procession of flags. Interested families should be in touch with Barry.

If you have any WW1 memorabilia, we would be delighted to feature that on the evening. One congregant has a Serviceman's Siddur which was with his relative who died in the trenches – and from which we will be honoured to read a prayer.

We are keen to hear from family members who would like to honour their parents, grandparents, uncles and aunts etc, and particularly those who served under other flags ranging from ANZAC to the Kaiser.

This Shabbat I'm swapping pulpits with Rabbi Mordechai Ginsbury from Raleigh Close. It is a pleasure to welcome him to Kinloss. Rabbi Ginsbury is very highly regarded in the London Rabbinate, has headed the Rabbinic Council and works extensively with the P'eir (Promoting Excellence in the Rabbinate) programme. I value his guidance and friendship.

Many thanks to everyone for outstanding services over Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur. I'm now looking forward to Sukkot and Simchat Torah – and to sharing the Chatan honours and our festivities with Mark Hurst.

Next week's Kol Kinloss will have more details of the Simchat Torah Programme but I would just like to highlight my Shiur next Shabbat afternoon (29th Sept) at 5.45pm on the Halachot concerning Women and Sifrei Torah.

THE NATIONAL HOLOCAUST CENTRE AND MUSEUM IN NOTTINGHAM

Sunday 28th October 2018

Together with Rabbi Andrews, the day will consist of time in both exhibitions and memorial gardens along with a privileged survivor testimony.

The National Holocaust Centre and Museum in Nottingham promotes an understanding of the roots of discrimination and prejudice, and the development of ethical values, leading to a greater understanding within society. The Centre uses the history of genocide as a model of how society can break down, and emphasises how current and future generations must carefully examine and learn from these tragedies.

Spend time in both the memorial garden and the two permanent exhibitions which house artefacts from the period. The Memorial Gardens are set in an acre of beautifully landscaped countryside which provide space for reflection and places for individuals to remember their families. Meeting a survivor of the Holocaust and listening to their story makes this visit an unforgettably experience.

Transportation is provided. This will be an all day trip, leaving Kinloss at 8.30am and leaving Nottingham at 4.30pm.

Please provide your own lunch.

Cost of the trip

GUIDED TOUR OF THE JEWISH EAST END & VISIT TO THE V&A MUSEUM OF CHILDHOOD Monday 15th October 2018

A walk through time through the history of London's Jewish community in the East End and a tour of the nation's childhood collection of toys and childhood artefacts.

The tour encompasses a tale that embraces the poverty of the pogrom refugees and the glittering success of the Rothschilds; the eloquence of Prime Minister Disraeli and the spiel of the Petticoat Lane stallholder. Set amid the alleys and back streets of colourful Spitalfields and Whitechapel, it's a tale of synagogues and sweatshops, Sephardim and soup kitchens.

Meet your London Walks guide and fellow walkers by Tower Hill tube station. The Walk ends nearby Liverpool Street station. Then travel to Bethnal Green on the tube to The V&A Museum of Childhood, the largest institution of its kind in the world. It holds numerous toy exhibits featuring rare, hand-crafted objects sitting alongside well-loved toys from the 20th century including a variety of furniture, miniatures, dolls and games. The visit will include a guided tour as well as free time to peruse the four main galleries.

Transportation is not provided, more details will follow upon booking.

Cost of the trip £15 Kinloss members, £20 non-members
