Importance of Speech – Leora and Harry Salter

This week's Parasha is named after Balak, the King of the Moabite nation. Balak is a man famed for his military prowess. It says in Judges (11:25): 'And now, are you any better than Balak son of Zippor, King of Moab?' The story then continues and Balak asks Billam, a great magician, to curse the nation of Israel. After a number of refusals, Billam finally agreed to curse the Jewish nation. However, an incident happened on his way which changed the outcome of the curse.

As Billam was riding on his donkey, an angel of G-d appeared. Billam did not see the angel, as the Sforno explains in Perek 22 Passuk 22 because Hashem does not show angels to three people (Billam and his two servants). Billam's donkey, however, did see the angel of Hashem and there pulled over to the side and in the process 'pressed Billam's leg against the wall (Passuk 25).

In Passuk 28 we see that Hashem opened the mouth of the donkey and it said: 'What have I done to you that you struck me these three times?' Billam, who was surprisingly not shocked at the speech of the donkey, responds and says: 'Because you have mocked me! If there were a sword in my hand I would now have killed you!' The way Hashem allows the donkey to speak to Billam is interesting and important.

The Passuk writes 'Hashem opened the mouth of the she-donkey'. The Sforno points out that this is very similar to the Passuk from Psalms and something we say at the beginning of the Amidah. We say: 'O Lord, open my lips, that my tongue may declare praise'. Straight after this Passuk in the Amidah we then praise Hashem with language like 'Helper', 'Saviour' and 'Shield'. However, in this week's Parasha the similar verse is responded by discontent and further anger. Yet, the speech of the donkey was there for Billam to repent and to be reminder that Hashem is the one who gives us the power of speech.

Later on in the episode, Billam finally saw the angel and repented for his sins. He then went with Balak to proclaim the words (Perek 24, Passuk 5) 'How goodly are your tents, O Jacob, your dwelling places, O Israel'. We see an important message from here.

After Billam's lengthy decision process on whether to go or not was ultimately decided by a bribe, he thought he would succeed. All he had to do was to open his mouth and curse the Jewish nation. However, Billam was reminded of who controls the world, but not through something too irregular, by speech. This story shows the importance of speech, we should always try and endeavour to say the right and correct things. Speech is something we take for granted but is something we should value and recognise how much it can affect people and nations. As we say in Shacharit (Psalm 34): 'Who is the man who is eager for life, who desires years of good fortune? Guard your tongue from evil, your lips from deceitful speech.'

17th Tammuz and the Three Weeks

The fast of the 17th Tammuz (Sunday 27th June 2021) is one of four fast days to commemorate the destruction of Jerusalem & the Temple. The others are the fast of Gedalya, 10th of Tevet & 9th of Av.

According to tradition 17th Tammuz marks a number of tragic anniversaries:

- Moses shattered the 10 Commandments,
- The Tamid (daily) sacrifice was suspended because of the siege of Jerusalem,
- The walls of Jerusalem were breached for the destruction of the 2nd Temple,
- Apostomus burned a Torah Scroll - a symbolic act of oppression by one of Antiochus' Generals,
- An idol was erected in the Temple.

The Fast of Tammuz is from dawn to nightfall, (1.04am-10:22pm). It begins the "Three Weeks", also known as "Beyn HaMetzarim" - "Between the tragedies" - leading up to Tisha B'Av (9th of Av, 17-18 July 2021)

This year, both calendar days fall on Motzaei Shabbat. Some years they fall on Shabbat, itself and are marked on the Sunday.

Though the 17th Tammuz fast begins at dawn, the Motzaei Shabbat is considered a part of the Three weeks of mourning. (Ramban and R' Moshe Feinstein did allow weddings and haircuts in the evening if necessary, but most opinions do not)

Even though Tisha B'Av is not formally commenced until motzaei Shabbat 17th July at 10:11pm, and even though we can eat meat and drink wine on the Shabbat, we do bring in the fast early at 9:09pm.

During the Three Weeks a number of the rituals of Mourning are observed: From 17th Tammuz onwards one should not shave / cut one's hair, attend public entertainment. We do not hold weddings during this time. The Shulchan Aruch says we should avoid doing the pleasurable things over which we would make the "Shehechyanu" blessing though the Mishneh Berura citing the Vilna Gaon allow the blessing over new fruits on Shabbat. R' Moshe Feinstein allows the purchase of work costumes and underwear which do not make us feel joyous. Clothes which are discounted now but will be more expensive or harder to source after Tisha B'Av may also be bought.

From Rosh Chodesh Av the mourning is intensified. Ashkenazim do not eat meat or drink wine (excepting Shabbat), bathe for pleasure, buy new furniture or clothes. It is considered an inauspicious time for court cases & business transactions. (Sefardim only apply the strictures in the week of Tisha B'Av, which is only the day itself this year).

The Rema (Orach Chayim 551/7) holds that Ashkenazim should neither buy nor repair clothes during the "Nine Days". However R' Eliyashiv allows for expenditure on home improvements such as installing air conditioning or a new car as may be necessary.

Shabbat Shalom

R' Jeremy Lawrence

This Shabbat we are highlighting the North West London Eruv and will be following up with calls for support with its maintenance. We are indeed fortunate to live with an Eruv that enables young families to come to shul and go out to eat, to carry handkerchiefs, reading glasses and our house-keys, enabling us to carry books, to play ball in parks etc. It is a high-quality Eruv, halachically endorsed by Dayan Ehrentreu and physically maintained by volunteers and experts. Our Eruv adds greatly to our Shabbat and supports our community. This Shabbat, we request that you do not take the Eruv for granted and hope that you will be receptive to our Kinloss "drive" to support the North West London Eruv.

Please join us on Monday evening at 8pm when Adam Segal will be talking about Naftali Bennett, the New Israeli Government & Tzohar. www.kinloss.org.uk/israel

LET'S CARRY ON

Please support the Kinloss Eruv Fundraising campaign
26 July 2021

www.kinloss.org.uk/eruv

The North West London Eruv has changed Kinloss life for us all. So much so that we now take it for granted.

It costs £45,000 per year to maintain the Eruv. The cost is split around the various communities that depend on it, with Kinloss responsible for £7,500 per year.

These costs are a responsibility for us all

Please donate at least £1 per week at
