Rabbi Lawrence Chatan Torah

Rabbi Lawrence has been Senior Rabbi at Kinloss since August 2014. He previously served as Senior Rabbi at The Great Synagogue, Sydney and at the Auckland Hebrew Congregation in New Zealand. He received Semicha in Israel as a Kalms Fellow, studying under the late Rabbi Yakov Moshe Poupko. He has an MA in Jurisprudence from St Catherine's College, Oxford.

Rabbi Lawrence's interests include Business, Social and Medical Ethics; Interfaith and the reconciliation of civil and Jewish law codes. He has been cited and accredited in a number of academic publications and the Australian Law Journal.

Rabbi Lawrence is a member of the Global Foundation and has attended the two recent Rome Roundtables on Cooperative Globalisation and Sustainable Development.

Rabbi Lawrence is married to Mandy and has four children, Rafi and Shira are both married and living in Australia and Israel respectively; Bracha taking her A Levels at Henrietta t and Devora, who starts at Hasmonean School this year.

Rabbi Lawrence is delighted to be Chatan with Mark Hurst, who he has known for 30 years and whose family's commitment to Jewish education and community he thoroughly admires.

Mark Hurst Chatan Bereishit

Eleanor and I, together with Tzvi, Zahava, Yossi and Shimon, joined Kinloss in 2009 and moved to within a short walk in 2010. Due to the size of the community it took us a while to find our place but we concluded that jumping in at the deep-end and getting involved would be the best way to do this. Over the years we have been involved on the board and with welfare, youth and education related projects. We have met some incredibly committed and inspiring people from whom we have learned so much and we have developed so many friendships. I became a gabbay in the Minyan almost 5 years ago, a role which I considered particularly daunting, it being a minyan made up of so many ex-gabbayim. However, it became a role which I enjoyed tremendously and I am grateful for the incredible support and guidance from the rabbonim AND of course all of the ex-gabbayim, over the years. I am extremely grateful and humbled to have been offered the honour of Chatan Bereishit and we look forward to being part of this amazing community for many years to come.

Youth Service Chatanim & N'shei Chayil

Daniel Lewis Chatan Bereishit

I am currently in year 13 at Immanuel College studying Maths, Physics and Economics for A-Levels. I have enjoyed spending my time in the Youth Service the last 6 years and have always looked forward to Shabbat morning. The last year I have been Gabbai, which is a tough job. However it was very rewarding. I am a big Tottenham fan and I am a referee in my spare time (meaning I never make the right decision). I am also a madrich for Bnei Akiva.

Jonah Weiniger Chatan Torah

I'm 17 years old and currently studying for my A-Levels at City of London School. I am greatly thankful to be receiving the honour of being the Chatan Torah this year at the Kinloss Youth Service. My hobbies include football, cricket and water polo. I am equally honoured and excited to be one of the gabbaim this year and I thank Barry for this opportunity.

Bracha Lawrence Eishet Chayil

I am currently in year 13 at Henrietta Barnett studying maths, further maths, chemistry and physics for A-Level. I am very passionate about Jewish education and enjoy studying Talmud and Biblical Hebrew. I assist the community where I can, volunteering through Gift, Bnei Akiva and various other Jewish organisations as well as in the Youth Service here at Kinloss.

Jess Cavendish Eishet Chayil

I am in year 13 at Haberdashers' Aske's School for Girls studying Maths, Chemistry and Geography for A level. I hope to become a teacher. I enjoy going to shul and have been involved with Jewish youth organisations for a number of years. I graduated from the Kinloss Youth Learn2Lead programme and this past summer I was a madricha at camp. I love the interaction with people of all ages but especially kids. In my spare time I enjoy playing the saxophone and play in bands both at school and in Barnet. Anyone fancy forming a shul jazz band?

Coral Harding Eishet Chayil

I'm passionate about helping others and in my spare time I visit the local old age and liveability care homes close to my school to chat to people who are old or physically handicapped. I recently organised a talk for one of the residents, who has cerebral palsy, to come and talk about his life to pupils at my school, which was very special. I volunteered with BA as a Madricha last year and often help run the many Kinloss Youth events which take place in the shul. I'm in Year 13 at North London Collegiate School and I'm currently studying Art, Biology and Geography at A Level.

THE NATIONAL HOLOCAUST CENTRE AND MUSEUM IN NOTTINGHAM

Sunday 28th October 2018

Together with Rabbi Andrews, the day will consist of time in both exhibitions and memorial gardens along with a privileged survivor testimony.

The National Holocaust Centre and Museum in Nottingham promotes an understanding of the roots of discrimination and prejudice, and the development of ethical values, leading to a greater understanding within society. The Centre uses the history of genocide as a model of how society can break down, and emphasises how current and future generations must carefully examine and learn from these tragedies.

Spend time in both the memorial garden and the two permanent exhibitions which house artefacts from the period. The Memorial Gardens are set in an acre of beautifully landscaped countryside which provide space for reflection and places for individuals to remember their families. Meeting a survivor of the Holocaust and listening to their story makes this visit an unforgettably experience.

Transportation is provided. This will be an all day trip, leaving Kinloss at 8.30am and leaving Nottingham at 4.30pm.

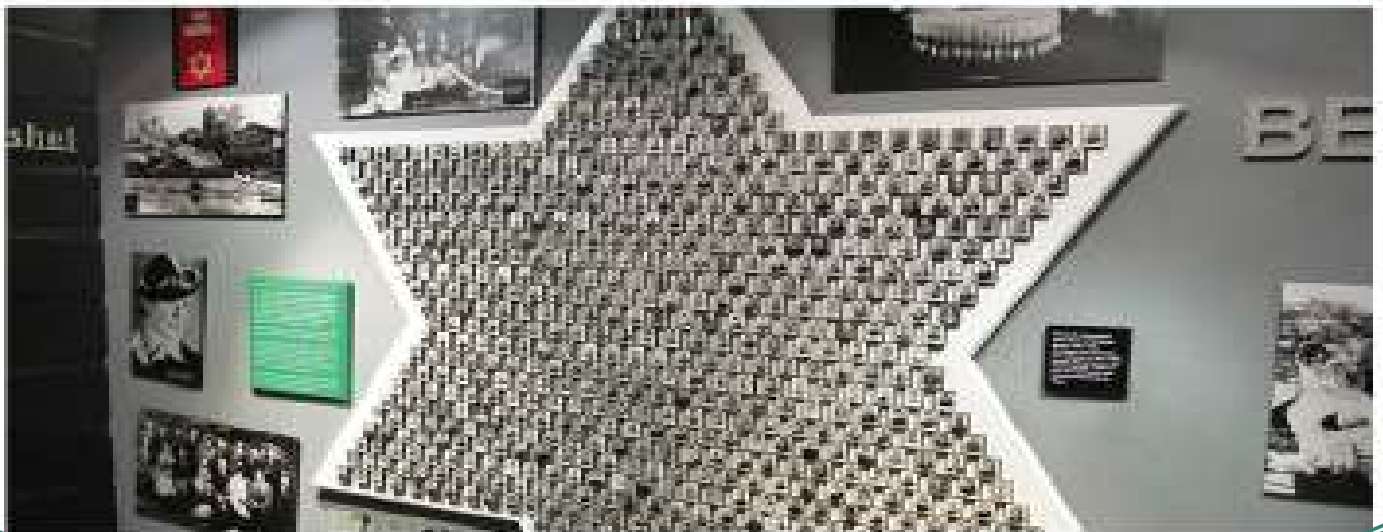

Please provide your own lunch.

Cost of the trip

GUIDED TOUR OF THE JEWISH EAST END & VISIT TO THE V&A MUSEUM OF CHILDHOOD

Monday 15th October 2018

A walk through time through the history of London's Jewish community in the East End and a tour of the nation's childhood collection of toys and childhood artefacts.

The tour encompasses a tale that embraces the poverty of the pogrom refugees and the glittering success of the Rothschilds; the eloquence of Prime Minister Disraeli and the spiel of the Petticoat Lane stallholder. Set amid the alleys and back streets of colourful Spitalfields and Whitechapel, it's a tale of synagogues and sweatshops, Sephardim and soup kitchens.

Meet your London Walks guide and fellow walkers by Tower Hill tube station. The Walk ends nearby Liverpool Street station.

Then travel to Bethnal Green on the tube to The V&A Museum of Childhood, the largest institution of its kind in the world. It holds numerous toy exhibits featuring rare, hand-crafted objects sitting alongside well-loved toys from the 20th century including a variety of furniture, miniatures, dolls and games. The visit will include a guided tour as well as free time to peruse the four main galleries.

Transportation is not provided, more details will follow upon booking.
